Fold along this line to match front and back, glue it together (possibly add some thicker core) and then cut from the front (left side) along the frame.
Fold along this line to match front and back, glue it together (possibly add some thicker core) and then cut from the front (left side) along the frame.
Fold along this line to match front and back, glue it together (possibly add some thicker core) and then cut from the front (left side) along the frame.
Fold along this line to match front and back, glue it together (possibly add some thicker core) and then cut from the front (left side) along the frame.